To the appeal of the KRUMBLES flavor, every appetite is that of a hungry boy.

Not merely a new flavor, but a new kind of flavor. No one else ever thought of preparing Wheat just this way and bringing out its full natural sweetness.

KRUMBLES—the whole of the Wheat—cooked, “krumbled” and delicately toasted.

Take a saucerful of KRUMBLES, with cream or milk. See how new the flavor is—and how pleasing!

The longer you chew KRUMBLES the better it tastes.

KRUMBLES is waiting for you at your grocer's.

LIVE STOCK REPORT

The hog trade opened pretty slow today, and for a time it looked as though we might have to shade prices somewhat, due to the fact of a supply of 7000 head of which about 1000 were direct to local packers. However, after a thorough work-out we finally held the market fully steady with yesterday, making a top of $7.90 for pigs. The bulk of the 100 to 140 pound pigs sold at $7.70 to $7.80; the lighter pigs $6.50 to $7.50; light ship-pers and butcher hogs, 150 to 200 pounds mostly $7.70 to $7.80, with the latter price the top for these weights. Medium weight hogs, 210 to 250 pounds, sold at $7.50 to $7.70 and the good, fat, heavy hogs, 260 pounds and upwards, at $7.15 to $7.35, while rough hogs brought $6.50 to $6.75.

The fat steer market was draggy today and sales were barely steady with Monday. Butcher cattle of all kinds cleared in fairly good season today with values fully as good as yesterday. Receipts 5,000.

The trade for sheep and lambs was fully steady with yesterday. Best lambs brought $8, with the bulk of the good selling at $7.50 to $8, and the cull end at $5.50 to $6. Fat heavy sheep selling steady at $6.25, with the light end, if of good quality, selling at $6 to $6.75. Canner sheep $2.50 to $3, and chopper sheep $4.25. Bucks $4.00.

Yours very truly,

WINS HER FIGHT FOR SON HELD FOR BOARD BILL

Mrs. Florence Moore of Wellston yesterday won her second suit to obtain possession of her 22-months-old son, who, she charged, was being held by his grandmother, Mrs. Jeanette Moore, Sulphur Springs, Mo., for a board bill. Appellate Judge G. D. Reynolds, in chambers, awarded her custody of the child on a writ of habeas corpus.

Mrs. Moore filed suit against the grandfather, Geo. T. Moore, but it was dismissed by Judge Hennings when Moore said his wife had custody of the child. Mrs. Moore's husband was drowned while her suit for divorce was pending. The grandmother said she cared for the baby since birth. The grandmother turned the child over to its mother in court.

Awful, ain't it, what Democratic administrations do to the state and nation. The Treasury at Washington has a surplus of eighty-six million dollars while the Treasury at Jefferson City has six and one-half millions to the credit of we, the people. To make matters worse, the year's trade balance, according to the Globe-Democrat, is a billion dollars on our side of the ledger, a record without an equal. With wool higher than a kite, live stock and grain at topnotch prices and an unprecedented demand for everything we raise or make, the pessimist who predicted dire things under the Wilson administration finds himself without a single real grudge against anybody except the weather clerk. To add to his woes another record wheat crop has been harvested, another record crop of oats is in sight and a record corn crop is clearing the weeds and hiking for home base. It all spells four more years for Woodrow and good government. Utah and Vermont show signs of coming into camp and making it unanimous. — Paris Appeal.
